Honor and Integrity in Smeal

Questions? Click here to email us!

Smeal has an honor code that students abide by during their four years in Smeal. The honor code is an extremely important part of Smeal culture and can be found on assignments, syllabi, websites, etc. Show your dedication to Smeal by stopping in the atrium to sign the Honor Code at the dates listed below!

- September 7 - 8: 10 AM to 2 PM
- September 20 - 22: 10 AM to 2 PM

Signing the Smeal Honor Code is not the only way to show your dedication to honor and integrity in Smeal. Be sure to check out some of the events listed below!

- Ethics & Executives with Ron Morgan, Chairman and Co-Founder, MorganFranklin Consulting
 - September 13: 6:00 - 7:15 PM
 - 126 Business Building
 - Learn first-hand about an executives' experiences with navigating an ethical dilemma in the business workplace.

Best of the Best

State College has some of the best cuisines that you can find and there is never a shortage of good food to eat. If you ever find yourself needing a change of pace from dining hall food, check out our Best of the Best!

Best Thai

College is all about trying new things! Start with Thai, you'll thank me later! The pad thai at Galanga on east college is amazing and inexpensive! Chicken pad thai was one of my first State College meals and it may have influenced my decision to come here... yes it's that good!

Best Late Night Bite

Pokey Stixs from Gumby's are a must. The garlic breadstick goodness is a Penn State staple and you HAVE to order on a Thursday night! You can get an XL to share with your friends for only $10! You know you want to.

Best Breakfast Sandwiches

Fraser Street Deli... Their sandwiches in general are really good

Career Fairs

Career Fairs are a major source of employment for students for both full-time and internship opportunities during the fall and spring semesters. Recruiters are looking for confident, professional students who can communicate their interests in a company and relevant skills. Going to networking events as a freshman can help you build up your confidence in talking about yourself professionally with recruiters. 80% of companies use internships to feed full-time hires. Of the students with jobs upon graduation (Spring 2014), 90% held at least one internship during their college career.

Don't be afraid to go to a career fair and get the practice and skills needed to score an internship in the future!

- Corporate Partner Career Fair - Sept 12, 11 AM - 4 PM
- BJC Career Fair (Non-technical Full Time) - Sept 13, 11 AM - 4 PM
- BJC Career Fair

and it is a cute location nestled back on Fraser St. just about across from Dunkin. Stop in for soup and a sandwich on a rainy day and you WILL NOT regret it. Plus the names of the sandwiches are super fun!

For the best bagels, go for Bagel Crust. You will not regret this decision... ever.

Best Chinese

Big Bowl on College Ave. is some of the best Chinese food you could have. Just remember, it's cash only so make sure to stop at an ATM before you go!

Best place to take your parents

The Deli is a no fail option. Anything you could want is there and their mac and cheese is pretty great! They have great soups, burgers, and salads that mom and dad will love!

Best Diner Food

Baby's is your class diner: delicious and inexpensive. Splurge on a grilled cheese and milkshake and stay for the classic tunes of Elvis and the Beatles. It's always a great time at Baby's!

Pro Tip:

Download the "Hooked" app for special student discounts around town! It's free and you can save a ton of money (for more delicious food)!
